

Online Exchange Forum: List of Virtual Booths

at the Virtual Transatlantic Day of Networking
Exploring the 'New Normal' in Transatlantic Exchanges –
Participatory Approaches and Blended Learning in Vocational Education Exchange Programs

Tuesday, November 16th, 2021, 15:00 – 18:30 Uhr (CET) | 9AM – 12.30 PM (EST)

► Realizing Trainee Exchanges and Other Transatlantic Projects (Good Practices)

Booth Provider	Description	ZOOM Title
Dr. Yulia Kozyrakis &amp; Cornélie Krehenbrink   Joachim Herz Foundation (Germany)	This booth will provide information about the scholarship programs of the Joachim Herz Foundation 'Azubis go USA' & 'Azubis go Canada'.	1: Azusa
Stephanie M. Kelly   Community Colleges for International Development (USA)  Megan Popkey   Northeast Wisconsin Technical College (USA)  Perzen Akolowala   Lone Star College (USA)  Dr. Margaret Hiebert   State Center Community College (USA)  Rebecca Trautwein   Humber College Toronto (Canada)  Deborah Nakagawa   University of Hawaii Community Colleges (USA)	This booth will introduce you to Community Colleges for International Development (CCID), a global consortium of community and technical colleges dedicated to international education, and allow you to network with some of our members from the United States and Canada looking to build partnerships with institutions in Germany.	2: CCID
Dr. Leah Mason &amp; Clare Overman   Institute of International Education (IIE) (USA)	This booth will provide information about the Institute of International Education (IIE), a leading non-profit organization administering programs and performing research on international education and exchange.	3: IIE

Booth Provider	Description	ZOOM Title
Dr. Ralf Hermann &amp; Dr. Hanno Kress   German Office for International Cooperation in VET at Federal Institute for Vocational Education (GOVET at BIBB) (Germany)	This booth will provide information about the GOVET at BIBB. GOVET is a joint facility of various federal government departments headed by the Ministry of Education and Research (BMBF), established in 2013 as a core element of the Government's strategy on international cooperation in VET. It forms part of BIBB. GOVET is the contact point for national and international VET cooperation stakeholders and Secretariat of the national Round Table on international VET cooperation. It transfers BIBB know-how into government services, stakeholder dialogues with state and non-state players, and international consultancy and cooperation projects.	4: GOVET
Martin Auer   Student, Alumnus 'Azubi go USA' and Founder of 'Youth Lead the Change Germany' (Germany)	This booth will provide information about some initiatives promoting the civic engagement of young people and transatlantic dialogue. As the founder of 'Youth Lead the Change (YLC) Germany', Martin Auer will explain how young people are encouraged to actively structure, and spent part of the cities finances to experience democracy in action. Besides, Martin will present the 'Young Transatlantic Initiative' as well as the transatlantic calender 'atlantical'.	5: YLC
Sabine Smith   Kennesaw State University (USA)	This booth will provide further information on the content of Talk I "Blended Learning Approaches to Intercultural Competence Training." Visitors can explore, for example, details on differentiated Blended Learning approaches that address student needs and school resources; specific components in Intercultural Competence models and skills training; examples from KSU ranging from co-curricular projects to semester-long courses; or, questions of particular interest to visitors.	6: KSU
Susanne Auer &amp; Philipp Lütgens   Leopold-Hoesch-Berufskolleg (Germany)	This booth will provide further information about the contents of Talk II: 'Hybrid Exchanges with High Level of Student Involvement' on the basis of the Erasmus + project 'Robots 'r us'.	7: LHB

Booth Provider	Description	ZOOM Title
Zoran Kondali, Angela Graham &amp; Alex Renaud   Nova Scotia Community College (Canada)	This booth will introduce to Trades Programming at Nova Scotia Community College and Partnership Opportunities.	8: NSCC

▶ Financing Transatlantic Trainee Exchange Programs

Booth Provider	Description	ZOOM Title
Isabel Dwinger &amp; Iris Schultz   Joachim Herz Foundation (Germany)	This booth will provide information about the grant program GATE (German Apprenticeship Training Exchange) of the Joachim Herz Foundation. Via GATE, we offer financial support to establish or continue long-term exchange partnerships between German vocational schools and North American colleges (USA and Canada).	9: GATE
Henrike Nitz   National Agency Education for Europe at the German Federal Institute for Vocational Education and Training (NA at BIBB) (Germany)	The booth will provide information on the international funding opportunities for apprentices and VET professionals operated by the NA BIBB: Erasmus+ is the program of the European Commission for apprentices and VET staff to participate in internships and training courses in various European countries. VET WorldWide by the German Ministry for Education and Reserach (BMBF) funds apprentices' interships, trainers and preparatory visits in all countries beyond the Erasmus + program.	10: NABIBB
Elisabeth-Maria Breuer   Secretariat of the Standing Conference of the Ministers of Education and Cultural Affairs (KMK) (Germany)  Molly Rowland   Goethe-Institute New York (USA)	This booth will provide information about the German American Partnership Program (GAPP), established in 1972. With over 680 active school partnerships, about 10,000 students and 1,300 teachers every year, GAPP is the largest and most successful U.S.-German student exchange and partnership program. It is part of Germany's foreign cultural and education policy and jointly administered by the Educational Exchange Service (PAD) of the Standing Conference of Ministers of Education and Cultural Affairs of	11: GAPP+ GAVE

AZUBIS IN DIE USA

	the Länder of the Federal Republic of Germany, the Goethe-Institut New York and GAPP, Inc. The program is funded by the German Foreign Ministry, which also holds responsibility for the overall concept. Additional funding is provided by the U.S. Department of State. Teachers and students qualify for airfares subsidies; project costs are also supported. Since 2020 GAPP offers virtual exchanges in addition to real exchanges (GAVE).
--	---	--